Scene 1 Take 1 5-Year Anniversary Festival

Friday 31 October 8pm - FREE

The Curse of Aggy Girl. This local favourite is a tale of young love and adventure, featuring Our girl Aggy who makes a new friend, the largest fish in Britain, as well as a young girl who escapes from prison to cause mayhem. It is a disturbing and morally ambiguous story. Inspired by the novel of the same name by Margaret Landon, it is directed by Richard Attenborough, who is best known for his film career. The film will be shown at the South West Picture Show to commemorate great British films and the region for short films, the more ambitious and innovative of which have been produced in the region. The film will be shown to the public, and a discussion will be held with the filmmakers involved in the project.

The Great Race

Thursday 2 October 7.30pm - FREE

This is a technically outstanding comedy about an absurdly long-distance road race between two platoons, tasked by FDR with going into Germany to rescue artistic treasures and returning them to their rightful owners. The film is a record of a vanishing way of life, and a celebration of the fishing industries of the island – now only a memory for those who grew up on the island.

The Shepherds of Berneray

This is a beautifully made documentary by Nicholas Philibert, France 2003 102 mins. It focuses on an unlikely World War II survival story. The film is set on the tiny archipelago of the Outer Hebrides, where a platoon of soldiers who answered their country's call were betrayed by their own government and put to work as slave nurses in Germany. The film is an ultimately moving tribute to the sacrifice of ordinary men who were forced to fight against their will.
