The purpose of this conversation is to 'take the temperature' of public views on climate change and on potential actions to tackle it, and to report findings to the Scottish Government.

All welcome – please note you do not need any specialist knowledge, just a desire to have a constructive conversation.

Welcome to bring your own packed lunch. Free teas and coffees served from 12noon.

Free but ticketed. Please register your interest in advance.

Bikes vs Cars

Fri 5 Oct

Fredrik Gertten | Sweden | 2015 | 90m | Some Subtitles

Activists fight for better cities, and refuse to stop riding bicycles despite the increasing number of riders killed in traffic. But will dominant economic interests allow bikes to change our way of life?

From bike activists in Sao Paulo and Los Angeles fighting for safe bike lanes, to Copenhagen, where forty percent commute by bike daily, this film examines the struggle for cyclists in a society dominated by cars, and the revolutionary changes that could take place if more cities moved away from car-centric models.

Climate Week Scotland event. Followed by 30 minute Climate Conversation.

Leaning Into The Wind: Andy Goldsworthy

Tue 2 Oct + Sat 10 - Fri 16 Nov

Thomas Riedelsheimer | UK/Germany | 2017 | 97m | PG | In English with some Subtitles

An award-winning, internationally renowned artist, Andy Goldsworthy OBE is known for creating unique work that combines materials from everyday surroundings. Some of his pieces are monumental, others exist only briefly before being altered or erased by natural processes. The film follows Goldsworthy from his home in Dumfriesshire to France, Brazil and the USA as he creates stunning works of art from the world around him.

We are delighted that artist Andy Goldsworthy will join us for a short Q&A after the screenings on 2 Oct and 16 Nov.

The screening on 2 Oct is in association with the local branch of the Art Fund.

Andy Goldsworthy has made his home in the region.
