Living Proof: A Climate Story

Tue 16 November

Emily Munro | Scotland | 2021 | 96m | N/C 8+

A stunning new archive documentary that looks for the roots of the climate crisis in Scotland's post-war history.

In the year that Scotland hosts the UN's climate change conference (COP26), Living Proof explores the country's complex relationship to the global climate crisis through film and music. In this new feature-length documentary from Scotland's Moving Image Archive, curated footage evocatively shows how our environment has been shaped by the demand for energy, industry, and growth, soundtracked by Scottish musicians past and present.

Contains a brief depiction of alcohol consumption

Living Proof is a partnership project between the National Library of Scotland Moving Image Archive and Film Hub Scotland.
